3. There are a few additional factors you should bear in mind regarding our anticipated future space needs. We will be using our vault (7C25 area) as a vault, and not as office space; thus office space for [] will have to be found in addition to the needs outlined above. If the workload carried by the law divisions located in the Headquarters Building increases substantially, the General Counsel may have to transfer a lawyer from the Ames Building. The space allocated to the library also must be increased substantially. The exact space needs are awaiting the outcome of a library survey which will begin soon. However we have already been advised on an informal basis that we will need at least twice the space we now have. And finally, we will need suitable space for CRT terminals and microfiche reader-printers both in the 7D01 area and the 7C40 area.
